

Affordable & Fun Date Ideas

- Come up with fun questions to ask each other (or see my other Resource “25 Fun Date Night Questions”).
 - Dust off those board games & grab your favorite beverage.
 - Find a recipe using ingredients you already have & cook together.
- Have a movie date - you each get to choose one movie with no vetoes!
 - Exercise together - get creative and think outside the box!
- Visit a museum - many cities have free or low-cost museums; if you aren't near a city, visit a local park.
 - Volunteer together - pick a local charity & support your community!
- Celebrate the years you were born by watching a movie & listening to top hits from those years.
- Test drive a fancy car - the salesperson doesn't need to know you don't intend to buy. :)
 - Take a short drive to see something interesting (Christmas lights, changing leaves, architecture, bridges, etc).
 - Build a backyard fire & make s'mores.
 - Go apple picking (or whatever fruit is in season in your area).
 - Watch videos on YouTube; include funny videos & also ones about locations you would both like to visit.
 - Learn something new via a YouTube video & try it out!
- Grab a cup of coffee or a smoothie & stroll around a town square or downtown area.
- Dream about winning the lottery & have fun fantasizing about how you would spend the money.
